

OTTO NETS PAIR OF 4TH-PLACE FINISHES IN TWIN 35'S

OSWEGO, N.Y (June 24, 2014) – Twin 35-lap features made their return to Oswego Speedway Saturday night, June 21, and the popular format resulted in a pair of fourth-place finishes for Otto Sitterly and the John Nicotra Racing team.

Otto started outside the top 12 in both main events and drove working-man-like races in each contest.

Sitterly passed the likes of Dave Danzer, Tim Snyder, Michael Muldoon and Keith Champine on his way to the top-five run in the opener. With only 35 laps to find his way to the front, Otto was denied of his fifth consecutive top-three finish to start the season, but did pick up his fifth straight top-five result.

The 35-lap nightcap saw another hard drive to the top five. Sitterly wheeled his Nicotra machine from the 13th-place starting position and into the top 10 by lap nine. Otto advanced past Randy Ritskes, Keith Champine and Stephen Gioia in just a few laps and was into the sixth spot on lap 16.

But with other fast new-style Hawk Jr chassis ahead, Sitterly was only able to advance two more positions before the checkered flag waved. Tim Snyder fell off the pace late in the race and Otto made it past, and Michael Muldoon spun with only a few laps remaining which gave Otto the fourth spot.

Otto now has opened the season with six top-five finishes in six races. He has not finished worse than fourth all year and has built a commanding lead in Oswego's Novelis Supermodified point standings.

Next up for the Nicotra team is the Independence 75-lapper Fourth of July weekend at Oswego.
